

This diagram shows all the tables existing in the OpenCms database schema, but not all the relationships between these tables. It gives you an overview over the database with the most important relationships.

The relations between the table cms_user and/or cms_group and the offline tables are alike for the online tables and the history tables.